Join the Nichi Bei Foundation in a special 20th anniversary screening of "Picture Bride," Kayo Hatta's groundbreaking film on Issei women — the first theatrically-released feature film written, directed, and produced by Asian American women

Friday, Sept. 25, 2015
3:30 p.m. and 6:30 p.m.*
New People Cinema, 1746 Post St., SF Japantown

SPECIAL GUEST: Actress Tamlyn Tomita to Appear at 6:30 p.m. Benefit Screening!

winner of the Audience Award at the Sundance Film Festival

ABOUT PICTURE BRIDE: In her attempt to leave behind a troubled past, Riyo exchanges photographs and letters with Matsuji, a Japanese sugarcane worker in Hawai'i, and a marriage is arranged. Upon her arrival in Hawai'i, she discovers that her new husband bears little resemblance to the handsome young man in the photo and her world is not the paradise she expected. What ensues is a time of hardship, struggle, and unexpected joy.
